

Edward B. Mason Trophy

Awarded to Monhegan
Island Race
First Overall Maine
Resident & Resident
Yacht

In 1951 Edward M. Mason gave this trophy to the Portland Yacht Club. Originally awarded to the first Maine boat with Maine crew to finish in the Monhegan Island Race, corrected time. When, over time, boats registrations, owner's residences and the actual skipper, if a boat was borrowed, became more complicated the honor was clarified. The trophy is awarded to the first overall yacht domiciled in Maine and owned by a Maine resident. Mr. Mason won it himself the first year, in his sloop "Wayfarer".
